

NEWS UPDATE FROM

Charlesberry Kennels

New Cat Houses Ready

Frantic activity in the last few days and weeks have resulted in having our new cat houses ready for the Christmas break 2000. The new units fully comply to new regulations, which come into force at the end of this year.

DISABLED ACCESS - NO PROBLEM!

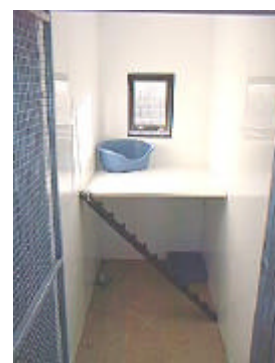

Our new Reception building is unfortunately not yet operative, due to our construction efforts being concentrated on new animal accommodation. We now hope to have this building open early next year. It will boast full access for the disabled, who we look forward to welcoming in the near future.

A Cats Eye View

As you can see for yourself; space, light and cleanliness have been the words that people have used to describe our new cat accommodation.

New Customers have genuinely remarked on how impressed they are with these units. We can surely say They are the purrrrrr-fect!

Charlesberry Kennels
Wish all our customers, new or old
A very merry Christmas
And a prosperous New Year
