Staff/Volunteer Development Days

The aims of our development days are to enable organisations:

- To build & strengthen relationships.
- To develop greater awareness and understanding of each others' needs and how team members can support each other more effectively to achieve common goals.
- To motivate each other.
- To create a better understanding of different roles and positions within an organisation.

There is no prescriptive programme on the Development Days and the programme can be tailored to suit the group's requirements.

Whatever your choice, Coldwell aims to offer one of the most flexible packages around!

Coldwell, together with its many partners, is able to offer staff development and team building opportunities to all organisations.

Our training takes place through a number of programmes:

- Horticulture – the maintenance and development of the grounds.
- Catering and customer service – all aspects of the delivery of a catering service to the general public.
- Maintenance and cleaning the Centre – upkeep of the Centre and preparing the residential facilities for incoming groups.
- Art – using our partners to produce permanent in-situ art features, both inside the Centre and throughout the grounds.
- Staff Development Days – using our partners to deliver a high quality service to match the needs and aspirations of organisations.
- IT and Skills training – the provision of accredited I.T. training aimed at groups within our local community.
- Digital Media – we are able to offer training in all aspects of the media from producing and script writing to filming and editing film.
