

"The Maramureş Tunebook comes highly recommended for all players who are:-

- set in their ways, and happy to stay that way
- perfectly content with their limited musical horizons
- barely (if at all) aware that there are all sorts of approaches to playing and participating in music, different from their own

These happy individuals are now blessed with yet another publication filled with simplistic notations enabling them to learn, with minimal personal effort, commitment and understanding, a few more different combinations of playable notes (preferably to be played as fast as possible) to add to their repertoire, so that then they can say they play Maramureş tunes too!"

The Maramureş Tunebook

The Maramureş
Tunebook

Thankfully, it's

"Not The Maramureş Tunebook"

you'll find on sale for £10,
at the Craft Fair, Tenterden Folk Festival 2007!

www.tenterdenfolkfestival.org.uk
info@tenterdenfolkfestival.org.uk

Also at Tenterden Folk Festival 2007:

"Not The Maramureş Tunebook: The Workshop!"

Tenterden Club,
Saturday 6th October, 12 noon-1.30pm
admission: £2.00

Come and explore how this Romanian community music tradition can change your life! Participants (with instruments, voices and/or dancing feet) and spectators equally welcome.

For more details, see: www.lucycastle.co.uk