

No single room supplement!

Friday February 23rd to Monday 26th 2007
and
Friday November 2nd to Monday 5th 2007
PAUL WILSON together with ELSIE BRETT

Invite you to join them on a bridge weekend at the Best Western HEATH COURT HOTEL, NEWMARKET. The hotel is privately owned and part of the Arlington Hotel Group and has earned a 3 star 68% rank by the A.A. Hotel guide and four crowns by the English Tourist Board. The Heath Court is located 300 yards from the centre of town, and actually stands at the bottom of the gallops where horses can be seen training daily. Newmarket, known simply as 'Headquarters' in the racing world, is unique and magical. It is situated in gently rolling countryside. For those of you wishing to explore further afield the area has an abundance of interesting attractions.

The City of Cambridge is situated just 12 miles away and is crammed with many interesting historic features including churches, colleges, museums and cobbled streets.

The small cathedral city of Ely is 15 miles north of Newmarket, and is home to one of the finest cathedrals to be found in East Anglia.

The market town of Bury St. Edmunds, 12 miles east of Newmarket, is where you are sure to find a bargain from the Saturday market, or you may prefer to explore the local gardens and discover the ruins of the ancient Abbey that once stood on the historic site.

There is a lift serving all floors. Bedrooms are located on the first and second floors. All are furnished to a high standard and have bath and shower, remote control Sky satellite television, radio, telephone, hairdryer, trouser press and hospitality tray. There is no extra charge for internal single rooms and £30 total supplement for sole occupancy of a double room. There are Executive/Superior Rooms available at a £50 total supplement.

Please request any special dietary or rooming requirements on the booking form. e.g. near lift, non smoking, 2nd floor.

Visit the White Orchid Health and Beauty Salon and the Tipsters Bar, that offers a relaxed atmosphere where you can enjoy a pre-dinner aperitif or a night-cap before retiring. Hot tips can sometimes be heard from members of the racing fraternity who often frequent the hotel, but... Berties Restaurant derives its name from the racing term "Burlington Bertie 100-30." Berties offer traditionally cooked food at its very best, served efficiently and in pleasant surroundings. To ensure quality of service, on arrival, you will be given the menu for Friday night dinner and you can contact reception with your choice. Orders for Saturday and Sunday night dinner will be taken at breakfast.

Bridge will be played in the air conditioned Guineas Suite, exclusively reserved for our guests and is on the ground floor. Partners can be arranged.

For those requiring transport, we are providing a coach to and from Shenley, Herts, Hillersdon Ave, Windermere Hall (Stonegrove), Stanmore Station, and the bus stop by Dove Park opposite Hatch End Station. Extra pick-up/set down points may be added where demand is greatest. P.T.O.
